Mattias Johnson is the managing partner of the Zug office. In addition to being a civil law notary in the Canton of Zug with many years of experience, Mattias Johnson deals principally with questions of transactional and corporate law, often in a cross-border context.

Mattias Johnson joined our firm in 2001 and became a partner in 2010. Besides his notarial work, he advises companies on the structural aspects of their internal organisation, supports international firms in general commercial law matters, and advises them on immigration and employment law issues.

Mattias Johnson obtained his law degree from the University of Fribourg (lic. iur.) in 1996 and from King's College at the University of London (LLM) in 2000. He was admitted to the Bar in 2003 and qualified as a civil law notary the same year. His working languages are German, English, Swedish and French.

Mattias Johnson is recommended in The Legal 500, 2018 (commercial, corporate and M&A), being described as "very professional and responsive".

Mattias Johnson is a member of the Zug Bar Association, the Swiss Bar Association, the International Bar Association, the German-Nordic Lawyers' Association and the Swedish-Swiss Chamber of Commerce.
